In Fall 2004, the University of Tennessee Libraries, in partnership with the Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts and the Pi Beta Phi Elementary School, received a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services to digitize and mount on the Internet images and written material documenting the educational and economic initiatives by the fraternity in Gatlinburg.

Read more at www.lib.utk.edu/arrowmont